OLD BUSINESS

1. WMU will provide snacks for Pediatrics Waiting Room at HVH . It was decided that the power bars left over from the Women's Conference could be used and that Vanessa would purchase the snacks with WMU funds.
2. 2009 Women's Conference was discussed—what we did right; what we can improve upon. Peggy Stanley reported that she has contacted Rebecca Alexander as a possible speaker for 2010. It was suggested that the theme be patriotic since it is scheduled for September 11.
Also, she has contacted Sugar and Spice about catering the lunch. They will cater the lunch for $2450 which is approximately $8.16 per person. This will include 150 chicken salad croissants, 150 ham and cheese sandwiches, garden salad, assorted desserts, tea, plates, cups, utensils, and six people to set up and serve. The group voted to proceed with getting a contract for the catering services.
3. Susan G. Komen Walk – October 25, 3 p.m.
The goal is $5,000. The Premier jewelry sale, sponsored by Teresa Stanley, netted more than $3,000.
There will be no evening church service or AWANA on that Sunday
4. Give-a-Thon Angel Tree—this year only coats will be distributed. WMU and the church will participate in the Day of Giving at the Duffield Primary on Saturday, December 19, cooperating and coordinating with other organizations that contribute to the needy children at the school.
