

WMU
Thomas Village Baptist Church
May 9, 2009

WMU met on Saturday, May 9. There were six in attendance. The Treasurer's Report was accepted as read.

Andrea Jessee presented some very good ideas on name tags for the Women's Conference.

Fifteen bags and money were collected for the Moldova Mission Project, and have been delivered. Food distribution for the Hunger Dialogue will take place on Saturday, May 16.

Children's Eggtrevaganza Day was a huge success, and the parents and other adults enjoyed a day of great fellowship.

Carolyn Dishner has been contacted and will soon be getting the Library books sorted.

The three- mile Breast Cancer Walk which will take place sometime in the fall was discussed.

The AED box with its contents will be on a cart in the foyer closet. It was decided that there needs to be put in the bulletin a notice that anyone who knows how to do CPR and knows how to operate the AED to contact Peggy Stanley or Vanessa Jessee.

The possibility of having a Jewelry Sale in the fall was discussed.

The need for snack baskets for Holston Valley Hospital was discussed; more information will be forthcoming.

Bible School will be June 14-19.

Possible trips for the ladies of the church that were discussed: Biltmore House, Nshville/Opry Land, Shatley Springs, Billy Graham's, Ashville, and the Grove Park Inn. More details after the next WMU Meeting.

Three ladies from the Higher Ground Baptist Church have been contacted and will be the guest music group for the Women's Conference. The main speaker, Rita Sweatt, will be staying at Roy & Phyllis Baker's cabins.

Shirley Wells has been working on the Program brochure, and it is complete. The title will be "...unto to us a child is born."

There were nine ladies from TVBC who attended the Women's Conference at First Baptist Church, Gate City.

Submitted by Lou Baxley